From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Mon, 5/18/2015 7:29:07 AM
Subject: In today's FT: India says it will overtakeChina growth, Whitehall ...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Monday May 18 2015

UK HOMEPAGE

India says it will overtake China growth

Finance minister promises to accelerate economic reform and resolve tax disputes with investors

Whitehall faces up to 100,000 job cuts

Osborne takes reins in drive to squeeze billions of savings from civil service

Burnham's quest for Labour leadership picks up pace

MP wins support from Reeves while Watson becomes frontrunner for deputy

VIDEO

Enterprise untied

The so-called beer tie in the UK can no longer be enforced on tenanted publicans by pub owners such as Enterprise Inns from May 2016. Lex's Robert Armstrong and Jonathan Eley discuss how Enterprise is dealing with this development in an already weak pub industry.

US HOMEPAGE

Amazon trolleys take NY subway ride

Online retail group delivers parcels to Manhattan customers using underground train network

US states seek to block city fracking bans

Lawmakers clash with local politicians over shale exploration amid oil industry warnings

Letter reveals fragility of Greek finance

Prime minister had warned that Athens would default on IMF repayment without ECB aid

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Isis claims to have captured Ramadi

Car bomb assault on administrative centre said to have caused state troops to flee their positions

Georgia hopes for ties with Europe sour

Russia's influence grows as planned membership deals with Nato and EU fail to materialise

Train operators track European contracts

More EU countries follow UK and Sweden's lead in holding competitive tenders for rail franchises

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Investment from emerging nations surges

Asia starts to rival US and Europe as FDI flow rises by a third to hit record

Fast Asia Open - Asia to slip on soft US data

Saudi oil sales to US lowest since 2009

Fall shows impact of shale boom and fast-growing imports from Canada

WORLD NEWS

Deng Xiaoping in KKK attack . . . in 1979

Chinese media excited by what some dub an assassination attempt on China's late paramount leader

Nine bikers die in Texas shootout

Tensions have been simmering among rival gangs for months

Amtrak adds speed controls at crash site

Details emerge on why better safety system was not in place

Osaka rejects plan to become metropolis

City has declined, with the defeat of bid for 2008 Olympic Games made worse by Tokyo's 2020 success

Denmark offers lessons for UK on Europe

The Danish experience at Maastricht is proving helpful as Britain embarks on its own EU talks

COMPANIES NEWS

Rio Tinto puts aluminium assets on block

Proposed sale is latest sign of global miners adjusting to commodities downturn

Massimo Zanetti seeks €200m in listing

Owner of Segafredo and Boncafé brands plans to sell about 40% of the group

Kering sues Alibaba over fake goods sales

Luxury brands group says Chinese company encourages sales of counterfeit products on its platform

Thomas Cook defends hotel deaths payout

Tour operator criticised after receiving '10-times' compensation the children's parents were given

Suppliers get slice of Apple's iPhone spoils

Booming earnings in supply chain demonstrate impact of smartphone market shifts

MARKETS

New measures anger securitisation sector

Focus on due diligence and disclosure requirements sending 'a negative signal' to market

Investors look for clues in bank minutes

Spotlight on data from US, Asia and Europe in week ahead

Movers & shakers: May 18

Elizabeth Para joins Newton as UK institutional business development manager

Saudi stock market welcomes foreigners

Opening of last large capital market closed to international investors to benefit all Gulf countries

FTSE chief's smart-beta warning

CEO of index provider says multifactor trend could be devastating for active managers

COMMENT

The ghosts of Iraq future

Botched Mideast intervention still defines those jockeying for political power in the US

Ukraine merits debt reduction

Failure to cut burden would confirm view that private interests influence public policy too much

Big Pharma's antibiotic resistance

Profit cannot be sole motive of an industry founded on making people better, writes Anjana Ahuja

Simple core to Grexit and Brexit issues

The European problems of Greece and Britain involve no innate difficulty

Central bankers prepare for divergence

Immediate danger facing global economy lies in when exactly US's rate lift-off will take place

MANAGEMENT

Brent Saunders, Actavis: Botox initiation

The need to understand customers led to an extreme product test for the dealmaking pharma boss

Harsh lesson from AOL's unappealing boss

He is living proof that it is nonsense to argue that the most successful leaders are the humble ones

Sharing makes space and tools affordable

Open workshops help members of the 'maker movement' to earn a living

Feedback: Fonts elicit strong feelings

Readers soon stepped into the fray after Sam Leith wrote about the subliminal power of typefaces

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2015

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.
This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.
Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.